AWARDS

Awards for each discipline (except Showmanship) is calculated as 1 horse/rider combo. All ties will be broken by the written test score. A second tie will be broken by highest placing in a randomly drawn class.

• Award Stipulations:

- Walk Trot: Participants can win Grand or Reserve once (one year), they must then attempt to "level up". If winners do not "level up", they will not be eligible to receive Grand or Reserve High Point again in Walk Trot, although they can win classes/ribbons.
  - Exception: 8-10 year old Walk Trot riders can win twice (two years) before they must "level up" or forfeit award.
  - Exception: If class size 5 or less, "level up" requirement waived
- Novice: Participants can win Grand or Reserve once (one year) per division, they must then attempt to "level up". If winners do not "level up", they will not be eligible to receive Grand or Reserve High Point again in Level 1 of that division, although they can win classes/ribbons.
  - Exception: 8-10 year old Level 1 riders can win twice (two years) per division before they must "level up" or forfeit award.
  - Exception: If class size 5 or less, "level up" requirement waived
- Limited: Participants can win Grand or Reserve twice (two years) per age division, they must then attempt to "level up". If winners do not "level up", they will not be eligible to receive Grand or Reserve High Point again in Level 2 of that age division, although they can win classes.
  - Exception: If class size 5 or less, "level up" requirement waived
- Advanced: There are no stipulations. Riders are eligible each year in each division. No restrictions.

LEVELS

Current Level Certification of the rider is required to show at fair.
