

CSU Extension Faculty rank will be determined by a review of the candidate’s academic credentials and professional experience by an Extension Promotion Committee:

	Instructor	Senior Instructor	Master Instructor	Assistant Professor	Associate Professor	Professor
Minimum Educational Requirement	Bachelor’s Degree	Master’s Degree	Master’s Degree	PhD*	PhD*	PhD*
Minimum Years of Applicable Professional Experience	0	5	10	0	5	10

* or terminal degree based in area of study

Additional criteria will be considered when determining candidates Extension Faculty rank:

Instructor or Assistant Professor

- Basic knowledge of educational technologies and their appropriate use in the development and delivery of educational programs
- Ability to plan, organize, work, teach and interact with diverse populations, including stakeholders from different socio-demographic groups and with varied background knowledge of the discipline area associated with position
- Ability to plan and conduct applied research
- Ability to secure external funding in support of the land grant mission
- Ability to lead groups, plan, implement, facilitate, teach, and evaluate educational and outreach programs
- Knowledge and experience planning, conducting, and evaluating participatory Extension or non-formal education programs
- Education or training in discipline area associated with position
- Ability to collaborate with interdisciplinary research teams
- Ability to supervise student or volunteer participation in applied research and Extension

Senior Instructor/Associate Professor or Master Instructor/Full Extension Professor of professional experience in:

- Designing, conducting, and evaluating education opportunities for learners
- A record of engaged scholarship and evidence of maintaining such public scholarship
- Knowledge of educational technologies and their appropriate use in the development and delivery of educational programs
- Ability to plan, organize, work, teach and interact with diverse populations, including stakeholders from different socio-demographic groups and with varied background knowledge of the discipline area associated with position
- Ability to plan and conduct applied research
- Ability to secure external funding in support of the land grant mission
- Ability to lead groups, plan, implement, facilitate, teach, and evaluate educational and outreach programs
- Knowledge and experience planning, conducting, and evaluating participatory Extension or non-formal education programs
- Education or training in discipline area associated with position
- Ability to collaborate with interdisciplinary research teams
- Ability to supervise student or volunteer participation in applied research and Extension

Additional information on Extension Faculty, please review the CSU Extension Faculty Code.