New Staff

An introduction to a new co-worker

Name: Keeton Ehrig
Title: Extension Agent, 4-H Youth Development/Livestock
Location: Larimer County
Date of Hire: June 2016

Personal Information:

Job Experience: Prior to being hired with CSU Extension, I worked at Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service – Lee County in Texas.

Education:

2004 B.S. Interdisciplinary Agriculture – Texas Tech University
2008 M.S. Master of Agriculture – Texas Tech University

Name: Kenzie Krinke
Title: Extension Program Associate, 4-H Youth Development/Livestock
Location: Adams County
Date of Hire: August 2016

Personal Information I grew up in Bozeman, Montana and was a 10 year member of Gallatin County 4-H, primarily participating in the horse project and taking numerous leadership roles within 4-H at the club and county committee level. I also participated in High School Rodeo and went on to rodeo on the CSU Rodeo team while obtaining my bachelor's degree in Equine Science with a minor in Business Administration. I then went on to pursue a career in Extension 4-H. My personal hobbies outside of my professional life include working horses, backpacking, hiking, and walking my dog Mesa.

Job Experience: After graduating from Colorado State University in May 2014, I worked as an intern for the Adams County 4-H Program where I found my passion for once again working with 4-H. After my internship with Adams County 4-H, I was hired in January 2015 by University of Wyoming Extension as the 4-H Educator in Teton County, Wyoming located in beautiful Jackson WY.

Education:

2014 B.S. Equine Science, minor business administration, Colorado State University Fort Collins, CO.
