2025 Cake Decorating Results

On, Thursday, July 10th, Morgan County Fair held their annual 4-H Cake Decorating Contest. For this contest, 4-H members were asked to bake a cake before the contest and then decorate it while the judge observed them. We had 4 amazing participants this year!

For Unit 1 cake decorators, they are focused on making sure that their icing completely covers the cake and goes on smoothly. They cannot use tips to decorate yet, so they get to choose candies and other edible items to decorate their cake. Coming in third in the Unit 1 Junior division was Delaney Kraft with her firework cake. The reserve champion was Willow Brown with her Ocean themed cake. Natalie Higgins was the Unit 1 Junior champion and she made a lamb cake.

Piper Neal participated in the Unit 6 class which is cut up cakes. In this class, participants will bake a cake, then cut and replace pieces to create a new shape to decorate. Piper used a rectangle cake to create a rocket to decorate. She was the Unit 6 Champion.

Willow Brown was the Junior Overall Reserve Grand Champion and Natalie Higgins was the Junior Overall Grand Champion. Piper Neal took Senior Grand Champion.
