

Colorado State University Extension

Morgan County Extension Office

970-542-3540

morgan.extension.colostate.edu

For Immediate Release

DEMONSTRATION CONTEST CHAMPIONS NAMED

Early fair goers learned about how to explore “junk drawer” robotics and were given an interpretive reading. At the 2025 Morgan County Fair Demonstration Contest. The contest took place on Thursday, July 24th in the 4-H Building.

A busy Thursday at the Fair included the dog show, Creative Cooks Contest and wrapping up with the 4-H Demonstration Contest.

In the Junior Demonstration division at the Morgan County Fair, Grand Champions were Natalie Higgins and Gabriel Higgins, who tied in the event. Spectators were taught about robotics in Gabriel Higgins’ “Bots, Brains, and Beyond: Exploring Junk Drawer Robotics” and were given the opportunity to watch and listen to Natalie Higgins’ interpretive reading of “The Monster at the End of This Book”.

Youth can represent Morgan County at the State Demonstration Contest which will be held on August 23rd and 24th, in Pueblo, during the Colorado State Fair.

Cutline for Pictures: The Morgan County 4-H Members who competed in the County Demonstration Contest held on July 24th, 2025.

###

Colorado State University Extension is your local university community connection for research-based information about natural resource management; living well through raising kids, eating right and spending smart; gardening and commercial horticulture; the latest agricultural production technologies and community development. Extension 4-H and youth development programs reach more than 90,000 young people annually, over half in urban communities.