

Lincoln County 4-H Program

"Member in Good Standing" Requirements

The following are the minimum 4-H Program requirements of Lincoln County and the State of Colorado to be a "Member in Good Standing."

Enrollment Eligibility Requirements:

- Reside or own property in Lincoln County.
- Attend school in Lincoln County.
- 4-H age is 8-18 years as of December 31st.
- Transfers of currently enrolled members from other counties are on a case-by-case basis.

Yearly Requirements:

- Participate in one demonstration, illustrated talk, or public presentation.
- Participate in one community service project.
- Complete at least one project and a record book for each project.
- Pay all fees, including late fees where applicable.
- Complete all individual club-level requirements.

Other Requirements:

Some project areas such as shooting sports, livestock, horse, etc. have additional forms, fees, practices, testing, and completion requirements. These requirements must be completed in addition to all other requirements.

Process if Requirements Not Fulfilled:

- Members not meeting the minimum requirements will receive a letter indicating they have been placed in a probationary period of one year.
- Members who fail to meet minimum requirements two years in a row will not be allowed to re-enroll.
- Members who do not complete an individual project of the current 4-H year will not be allowed to take that project in the following year.

*It is the responsibility of the member and family to understand and abide by all requirements including the fair book and changes.

*It is also your responsibility to contact your club leader or local extension office for questions or clarification.
